

Office of Legislative Counsel

Excerpt from Journal

Friday - 23 January 1959

Boyd Crawford, Staff Director of House Foreign Affairs, telephoned to raise the question of an appropriate press release after the Director's appearance on 29 January. Chairman Morgan had raised this point. I indicated that it would be extremely difficult to handle any substantive press release but that we did not have any objection to mention of the fact that the Director had appeared. Mr. Crawford understood our position very readily and although I indicated the Director would be willing to consider the matter if the Chairman felt strongly, he thought that we could consider the matter closed.
